Section B: True or False. (Total 20%, 2 marks each)

1. A rod and a gentle word impart wisdom, but a child left undisciplined honours its mother. (     )
2. Every word of God is flawless; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him. (     )
3. The eye that mocks a father, that scorns an aged mother, will be pecked out by the ravens of the valley, will be eaten by the vultures. (     )
4. She opens her arms to the poor & extends her hands to her friends. (     )

5. Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. (     )
6. What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again; there is nothing new under the sun. (     )
7. Then I applied myself to the acquiring of wisdom, and also of madness and folly, but I learned that this, too, is a chasing after the wind. (     )
8. I hated all the things I had bought for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me. (     )
9. There is a time for everything, and a reason for every activity under the heavens. (     )
10. Better one handful with tranquillity than two handfuls with toil and chasing after the wind. (     )

Section C: Match the correct answer. (Total 20%, 2 marks each)

1	The righteous care about justice for the poor,		a time to mourn and a time to dance
2	Ants are creatures of little strength,		nor the ear its fill of hearing.
3	Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves,		but to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and storing up wealth to hand it over to the one who pleases God.
4	The eye never has enough of seeing,		all come from dust, and to dust all return.
5	For the wise, like the fool, will not be long remembered;		an old but foolish king who no longer knows how to heed a warning.
6	To the person who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge and happiness		A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.
7	a time to weep and a time to laugh		for the rights of all who are destitute.
8	All go to the same place		yet they store up their food in the summer
9	Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves.		the days have already come when both have been forgotten.
10	Better a poor but wise youth than		but the wicked have no such concern.
