1. Remember your Creator in the days of your youth , before the days of trouble come and the years approach when you will say, “I find no pleasure in them”
2. when people are afraid of heights and of dangers in the streets; when the almond tree blossoms and the grasshopper drags itself along and desire no longer is stirred. Then people go to their eternal home and mourners go about the streets.
3. Pleasing is the fragrance of your perfumes; your name is like perfume poured out.
4. Like an apple tree among the trees of the forrest is my beloved among the young men. I delight to sit in his shade, and his fruit is sweet to my taste.
5. Listen! My beloved ! Look! Here he comes, leaping across the mountains , bounding over the hills .
6. All night long on my bed I looked for the one my heart loves ; I looked for him but did not find him.
7. How beautiful you are, my darling! Oh, how beautiful! Your eyes behind your veil are doves . Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from the hills of Gilead.
8. How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much more pleasing is your love than wine , and the fragrance of your perfume more than any spice!
9. Eat, friends , and drink; drink your fill of love .
10. My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices , to browse in the gardens and to gather lilies .

Section B: True or False. (Total 20%, 2 marks each)

1. Remember him—before the gold cord is severed, and the silver bowl is broken; before the pitcher is shattered at the spring, and the wheel broken at the well, (F)
2. and the dust returns to the ground it came from, and the spirit returns to God who gave it. (T)
3. Take me away with you—let us hurry! Let the king bring me into his chambers. We rejoice and delight in you; we will praise your love more than wine. How right they are to adore you! ()

4. Do not stare at me because I am dark, because I am darkened by the sun. My mother's sons were angry with me and made me take care of the vineyards; my own vineyard I had to neglect. (T)
5. The olive tree forms its early fruit; the blossoming vines spread their fragrance. Arise, come, my darling; my beautiful one, come with me. (F)
6. King Solomon made for himself the carriage; he made it of wood from Lebanon. Its posts he made of bronze, its base of gold. Its seat was upholstered with purple, its interior inlaid with love. Daughters of Jerusalem, (F)
7. You are a garden fountain, a well of flowing water streaming down from Lebanon. (T)
8. I opened for my beloved, but my beloved had left; he was gone. My heart leapt at his departure. I looked for him but did not find him. I called him but he did not answer. (F)
9. Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you— if you find my beloved, what will you tell him? Tell him I am faint with love. (T)
10. Who is this that appears like the dawn, fair as the sun, bright as the moon, majestic as the stars in procession? (F)
