7. I said, "I will not again see the LORD himself in the land of the living; no longer will I look on my fellow man, or be with those who now dwell in this world. (     )
8. Lord, by such things people live; and my spirit finds life in them too.
You restored me to health and let me live. (     )
9. The living, the living—they praise you, as I am doing today; parents tell their children about your faithfulness. (     )
10. The LORD will remember me, and we will sing with stringed instruments all the days of our lives in the temple of the LORD. (     )

Section C: Match the correct answer. (Total 20%, 2 marks each)

1	Hezekiah received the envoys gladly and showed them what was in his storehouses—		"There will be peace and security in my lifetime."
2	The prophet asked, "What did they see in your palace?"		they are regarded by him as worthless and less than nothing.
3	The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your predecessors have stored up until this day,		They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.
4	"The word of the LORD you have spoken is good," Hezekiah replied. For he thought,		"They saw everything in my palace," Hezekiah said. "There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them."
5	A voice of one calling: "In the wilderness prepare the way for the LORD,		lift it up, do not be afraid; say to the towns of Judah, "Here is your God!"
6	The grass withers and the flowers fall,		make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
7	You who bring good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain. You who bring good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with a shout,		the silver, the gold, the spices, the fine olive oil—his entire armory and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.
8	Who can fathom the Spirit of the LORD,		or instruct the LORD as his counselor?
9	Before him all the nations are as nothing;		will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD.
10	but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength.		because the breath of the LORD blows on them. Surely the people are grass.
