1	So justice is far from us, and righteousness does not reach us. We look for light, but all is darkness;		but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.
2	Like the blind we grope along the wall,		He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners,
3	He saw that there was no one, he was appalled that there was no one to intervene;		for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows.
4	The children of your oppressors will come bowing before you; all who despise you will		as a bridegroom adorns his head like a priest, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
5	“Although you have been forsaken and hated, with no one traveling through,		for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.
6	No longer will violence be heard in your land, nor ruin or destruction within your borders,		so his own arm achieved salvation for him, and his own righteousness sustained him.
7	The sun will no more be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you,		I will make you the everlasting pride and the joy of all generations.
8	The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.		so the Sovereign LORD will make righteousness and praise spring up before all nations.
9	I delight greatly in the LORD; my soul rejoices in my God. For he has clothed me with garments of salvation and arrayed me in a robe of his righteousness,		bow down at your feet and will call you the City of the LORD, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
10	For as the soil makes the sprout come up and a garden causes seeds to grow,		feeling our way like people without eyes.
