2. Zion stretches out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her. The LORD has _____ for Jacob that his neighbors become his foes; Jerusalem has become an _____ thing among them.
3. The LORD is _____ to those whose _____ is in him, to the one who _____ him;
4. How the _____ has lost its luster, the fine gold become dull! The sacred are scattered at every street corner. How the precious children of Zion, once worth their weight in gold, are now considered as pots of _____, the work of a potter's hands!
5. Your _____ will end, Daughter Zion; he will not prolong your _____. But he will punish your _____, Daughter Edom, and expose your wickedness.
6. _____ us to yourself, LORD, that we may return; _____ our days as of old unless you have utterly _____ us and are angry with us beyond measure.
7. In my thirtieth year, in the fourth month on the fifth day, while I was among the exiles by the Kebar River, the heavens were opened and I saw _____ of God. On the fifth of the month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin—the _____ of the LORD came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, by the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians. There the _____ of the LORD was on him.

Section B: True or False. (Total 20%, 4 marks each)

1. He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the other kings' table. ()
2. The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to her appointed festivals. All her gateways are desolate, her priests groan, her young women grieve, and she is in bitter anguish. ()
3. The LORD has done what he planned; he has fulfilled his word, which he decreed in the beginning. He has overthrown you without pity, he has let the enemy gloat over you, he has exalted the horn of your foes. ()
4. Moreover, our eyes failed, looking in vain for help; from our towers we watched for a nation that could not save us. ()

5. I looked, and I saw a windstorm coming out of the south—an immense cloud with flashing lightning and surrounded by brilliant light. The center of the fire looked like glowing metal, and in the fire was what looked like four living creatures. ()

Section C: Match the correct answer. (Total 20%, 2 marks each)

1	Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon,	and on the left the face of an ox; each also had the face of an eagle.
2	The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest,	till the day of his death
3	Day by day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived,	for his compassions never fail.
4	Jerusalem has sinned greatly and so has become unclean. All who honored her despise her, for they have all seen her naked;	without turning as they went.
5	Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed,	forth like flashes of lightning.
6	The punishment of my people is greater than that of Sodom,	where he put him in prison till the day of his death.
7	and in the fire was what looked like four living creatures. In appearance their form was human,	Zephaniah the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers
8	Their faces looked like this: Each of the four had the face of a human being, and on the right side each had the face of a lion,	she herself groans and turns away.
9	Each one went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit would go, they would go,	which was overthrown in a moment without a hand turned to help her.
10	The creatures sped back and	but each of them had four faces and four wings
