1. Rather, as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: in great endurance; in troubles, ( ) and ( ); in beatings, ( ) and ( ); in hard work, sleepless nights and ( ); in purity, ( ), patience and ( ); in the Holy Spirit and in sincere love; in truthful speech and in the power of God; with weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left; through glory and dishonor, bad report and good report; genuine, yet regarded as impostors; known, yet regarded as ( ); dying , and yet we live on; ( ), and yet not killed; ( ), yet always rejoicing; poor, yet making many rich; having nothing, and yet possessing everything.
2. Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do ( ) and ( ) have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?
3. Godly sorrow brings ( ) that leads to ( ) and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death.
4. Our desire is not that others might be ( ) while you are hard pressed, but that there might be ( ).

Section B: Match the correct answer. (Total 20%. 2 marks each)

1	What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God.		and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.
2	But since you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge,		and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.
3	Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly,		and thirst and have often gone without food; I have been cold and naked.
4	You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion,		For when I am weak, then I am strong.
5	You are judging by appearances. If anyone is confident that they belong to Christ,		but the one whom the Lord commends.
6	Neither do we go beyond our limits by boasting of work done by others.		in complete earnestness and in the love we have kindled in you—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.
7	For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved,		or a different gospel from the one you accepted, you put up with it easily enough.
8	For if someone comes to you and preaches a Jesus other than the Jesus we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the Spirit you received,		Our hope is that, as your faith continues to grow, our sphere of activity among you will greatly expand, so that we can preach the gospel in the regions beyond you.
9	I have labored and toiled and have often gone without sleep; I have known hunger		As God has said: "I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people."
10	That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties.		they should consider again that we belong to Christ just as much as they do.

Section C: True or False. (Total 20 %. 2 marks each)

1. See what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what concern, what readiness to see justice done. At every point you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter. (       )
2. For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have. (       )
3. This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of the Lord's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God. (       )
4. And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. (       )
5. We do dare to classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. When they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are wise. (       )
6. I do think I am in the least inferior to those "super-apostles." (       )
7. And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. It is not surprising, then, if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve. (       )
8. Besides everything else, I face daily the pressure of my concern for all the churches. Who is weak, and I do not feel weak? Who is led into sin, and I do not inwardly burn? (       )
9. I will boast about a man like that, but I will not boast about myself, except about my weaknesses. (       )
10. Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? We have been speaking in the sight of God as those in Christ; and everything we do, dear friends, is for your strengthening. (       )
